

MEMBERSHIP SERVICE AGREEMENT

This is a legally binding agreement between Project Restoration, hereafter to as "Servicer", and _____, hereafter referred to as "Client", entered and becoming effective and binding on _____

- I. This agreement is expressly for membership services for duration of 180 days.
- II. This membership agreement is expressly for the educational and scientific purpose of assisting the client to understand the workings of the credit and lending system, helping them achieve a debt and burden free lifestyle, and assist with education for victims of identity theft.
- III. This membership is only open to those person(s) who are victims of identity theft.
- IV. This membership will consist of counseling, assistance, education, and providing information on how to recover from and to protect against online, mail, and electronic identity theft.
- V. Client is responsible for producing all required documentation requested by Servicer. Client is responsible for all claims, allegations, and statements in conjunction with their claim of identity theft.
- VI. Client must comply with all requests for production of documentation in a timely manner so that Servicer may complete its contractual obligation to Client.
- VII. Servicer will assist Client with the removal of wrongful or negative items reported on Client's credit report which the client claims resulted in identity theft.
- VIII. Client grants Limited Power of Attorney to Servicer to block items on Client's credit report as instructed by client and to procure any documents needed to block items and prove identity theft.
- IX. Client indemnifies and holds harmless Servicer, its officers, employers, employees, agents, representatives, and contractors for any financial or legal injury as a result of Servicer's assistance.
- X. Client expressly states that all statements made orally or written are those of the Client, and do not reflect any ideas, suggestions, motives, encouragement, or recommendations of Servicer.
- XI. In the event of a material breach or disagreement by either party it is hereby agreed that both parties come before arbitration in Maricopa County, Arizona.
- XII. Client expressly agrees to hereby officially waive his/her/their rights to litigation or civil actions against Servicer, its officers, employees, agents, representatives, and contractors for any breach or financial or legal injury.
- XIII. Client agrees that the arbitrator must be approved by Servicer. Client agrees that all cost of the arbitration shall be paid exclusively by the party bringing the arbitration.
- XIV. If any part or subpart of this agreement is found to be unenforceable, the remainder of the agreement shall remain in force.
- XV. Servicer provides a guarantee of results under the following circumstances, (1) All documentation requested by Servicer is produced by Servicer by Client wishing a reasonable timeframe for processing and submission. (2) Items that are not removed from the first submission must be re- submitted at least five additional times. (3) If, after the sixth submission and the client credit report does not show 70% clean up, and fraudulent or unverifiable items are remaining, a partial refund will be given. New accounts that appear on the credit report during the cleanup process will be charged an additional $50 per account to have removed.

Consumer Credit File Rights Under State and Federal Law

You have a right to dispute inaccurate information in your credit report by contacting the credit bureau directly. However, neither you nor any “credit repair” company or credit repair organization has the right to have accurate, current, and verifiable information removed from your credit report. The credit bureau must remove accurate, negative information from your report only if it is over 7 year old. Bankruptcy information can be reported for 10 years.

You have a right to obtain a copy of your credit report from a credit bureau. You may be charged a reasonable fee. There is no fee, however, if you have turned down for credit, employment, insurance, or a rental dwelling because of information in your credit report within the proceeding 60 days. The credit bureau must provide someone to help you interpret the information in your credit file. You are entitled to receive a free copy of your credit report if you are unemployed and intend to apply for employment and intend to apply for employment in the next 60 days, if you are a recipient of public welfare assistance, or if you have reason to believe that there is inaccurate information in your credit report due to fraud.

You have a right to sue a credit repair organization that violated the Credit Repair Organization Act. This law prohibits deceptive practices by credit repair organizations.

You have the right to cancel your contract with any credit repair organizations for any reason within 3 business days from the date you signed it.

Credit bureaus are required to follow reasonable procedures to ensure that the information they report is accurate. However, mistakes occur.

You may, on your own, notify a credit bureau in writing that you dispute the accuracy of information in your credit file. The credit bureau must then reinvestigate and modify or remove inaccurate or incomplete information. The credit bureau may not charge a fee for this service. Any pertinent information and copies of all documents you have concerning an error should be given to the credit bureau.

If the credit bureau’s reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute to your satisfaction, you may send a brief statement to the credit bureau, to be kept in your file, explaining why you think the record is inaccurate. The credit bureau may not charge any fee for this service. Any pertinent information and copies of all documents you have concerning an error should be given to the credit bureau.

The Federal Trade Commission regulates credit bureaus and credit repair organizations. For more information contact:

The Public Reference Branch
Federal Trade Commission
Washington, Dc. 20580

There are non-profit organizations available that are funded by minimal client, fees, grants, other voluntary contributions from creditors.
